

Georgia DeMolay Advisory Council Installation Vow

You will raise your left hand, place your right hand over your heart, say “P”, speak your name in full and repeat after me:

On my honor as a man and advisor of this Chapter, I most solemnly and sincerely promise and vow that I will do all in my power to promote the prosperity of this Chapter and the Order of DeMolay in general.

I further promise that I will stand to and abide by the Statutes, Rules and Regulations of the International Supreme Council and DeMolay International, the decisions of its representatives in the Jurisdiction, the Constitution and Bylaws of the Associated DeMolay Chapters of Georgia and the Bylaws of this Chapter.

I further promise that I will stand as a beacon for all that is good and right, endeavoring to live my life as an example of the seven cardinal virtues set forth in the ceremonies of DeMolay, and that I shall always conduct myself in a manner deserving of the honor of being called a DeMolay Dad.

I further promise that I will use my talents, knowledge, and strengths to the benefit of members of this Chapter and the Chapter itself, with the intent of helping each member and advisor to be the best that he can possibly be.

All of this I promise without reservation, before God and these witnesses here assembled.
